

About the Alaska Champions League

The Alaska Champions League (ACL) is the leading elite-level soccer league for high school, collegiate, and adult male players based in Anchorage, Alaska and its surrounding areas. As an associate member of Alaska Youth Soccer, this competitive league aims to offer a higher-level of competition for soccer players and teams looking to play a truer version of the game during the winter months while preparing for the high school season, the summer season, and tournaments out of state.

DIVISIONS & SCHEDULES:

The Alaska Champions League is a 9-a-side league for male soccer players. The Fall 2013 version of the league runs from the beginning of October to the middle of December while the Winter 2014 version of the league runs from the beginning of January to the end of February.

Each 10-game schedule that offers a game once a week (unless otherwise noted).

REFUND POLICY:

The Alaska Champions League expects its participants to be extremely satisfied with the operations of the league. However, we also understand that certain situations may arise and the Alaska Champions League cannot always accommodate everyone's needs. In every program there are initial setup costs and administration fees in order to assist in making it successful and run smoothly. For this reason, the Alaska Champions League has developed the following the refund policy:

Anytime up to two weeks prior to the first game of the season: 100% Refunded

Two weeks or less prior to the first game of the season: 50% Refunded

From the start of first game of the season onwards: 0% Refunded

All withdrawal and refund requests shall be send by email to the Alaska Rush's Office Manager.

If you have any additional questions, please feel free to contact the Alaska Rush's Technical Director Jason Leonardis.
